Thank you for your interest in joining The National Talk Show Guest Registry! Please follow these three steps:

Step 1:

All applicable sections of this form must be completed accurately. Please print clearly or type if possible. Unless you are an authorized agency (PR firm, publisher, etc.) on our approved agency list, you may only register your own personal story or area of expertise (credentialed or self-taught). Be sure to circle all applicable [bracketed] items. The form must be signed for us to consider your request for membership.

Step 2:

Include a one page (700 words maximum) description of what you wish to share with a media representative or producer from the television, radio, film, print, or Internet industry for them to consider you as an interview subject for their production. You may include with your faxed registration, one or two pages of your best supporting documents (a newspaper clipping, for example).

Step 3:

AFTER COMPLETING STEPS 1 AND 2: Use this link ONLY to request our FAX #: [Email NTSGR](mailto:Email NTSGR). You will be provided with our FAX number and instructed to FAX this form, your description and no more than two pages of supporting documents. Upon receipt of your faxed submission and upon our approval of your story, we will email you a Paypal invoice for $49.95. The invoice will acknowledge your 12 month membership in the registry pursuant to the terms outlined below.

The individual signing this form attests, acknowledges and agrees as follows; That you are at least 18 years of age and that the information and material accompanying this form is, to best of your knowledge, true, accurate and is in no way libelous or slanderous in nature. Furthermore, that The Research Department and National Talk Show Guest Registry (TRD/NTSGR) acts as a general clearinghouse for potential true stories and guests and that we are not an "artist's agency" and so do not negotiate "deals" on behalf of our registrants. Because a variety of variable factors are involved in any production entity's decision to actually pursue a potential guest or their story, TRD/NTSGR does not guarantee that you will ever be contacted by any production entity, print or electronic in nature. Neither do we guarantee that if you are contacted, you will be booked as a guest or have your story pursued in any form. If you are or are not contacted by a prospective media representative or if you do make a guest appearance or publicly share your story as a result of our efforts, you agree to hold TRD/NTSGR and its affiliates completely harmless and free of all liability should you incur any loss, damage or hardship, financial or otherwise. TRD/NTSGR reserves the right to refuse any story submitted for consideration without explanation as well as the right to remove any existing member's information from the NTSGR database should it come to our attention at any time that the material appears to be slanderous or libelous.
